

Dr. Michael Burgess, PhD

Michael is the Deputy Head of Higher Education at Academies Australasia Polytechnic, and a Consultant Lecturer to Federation, La Trobe University and Victoria Universities in Melbourne, Australia. He is also a regular visiting lecturer at Hanoi University, Foreign Trade University and HCMC Open University in Vietnam. Michael has a wide range of experience in business, education and government sectors. Michael's research area is in change management and organisational behaviour and competencies, especially in cross-cultural settings.

Ms. Esther Teo, MBA

Esther is the Chief Executive Officer and Director of Academies Australasia Polytechnic, one of Australia's most successful and highly regarded private education providers, and in partnership with a number of Australia's best universities. Esther is both an experienced educator and international business practitioner. She has worked extensively in international business at senior executive levels. Esther has also taught for some of Australia's finest universities including Federation, RMIT, Swinburne and Monash Universities. Esther's teaching and research areas of expertise include systems analysis, project management, supply chain management, and information technology.

Ms. Giang Hoang, MBA

Giang is undertaking her PhD study at La Trobe University, Australia. She graduated from the Asian Institute of Technology, Bangkok, Thailand and the Ceram European School of Management, France in 2003 with a MBA majoring in International Business and a Master of Science in International Finance. Giang has been the Deputy Dean and a Lecturer of the Faculty of Management and Tourism, Hanoi University. Giang has extensive experience in development of international programs to facilitate exchanges between students and educators whose research interest is in Vietnamese culture and people. Prior to working in the academic field, Giang had worked for a number of international organisations in the securities and investment fields.

Ms. Nhat Dang, MIB

Nhat completed her MIB at La Trobe University in Melbourne, Australia, in June 2009. She presently lives in Hanoi, Vietnam and is a researcher for the Canadean Group. Nhat's primary research areas include corporate social responsibility, corporate governance, distance and virtual education, especially at the high school and undergraduate level. Nhat has been involved in e-commerce in Vietnam, and has been a researcher into such areas as electricity, telecommunications, pharmaceuticals, and commercial banking. Nhat is planning to undertake her PhD with a focus on corporate governance and organisational behaviour.