

Dr. Karen Densky is an Associate Teaching Professor at Thompson Rivers University in British Columbia, Canada where she is the Coordinator of the TESOL certificate program and Co-Chair of the Department of English Language Learning and Teaching. She has been a TESOL instructor and teacher educator for the past 30 years. She also served as BC TEAL president from 2018-20 and is currently on the TESL Canada Teacher Training Program Standards Committee.

Karen received her PhD in Curriculum Theory & Implementation from Simon Fraser University.