

DR. SAM SIDETH DY

Secretary-General of the National Committee for Lifelong Learning and Deputy Director-General for Education, MoEYS, Cambodia

Email: dy.samsideth@moeys.gov.kh

Dr. Samsideth Dy is currently Secretary-General of the National Committee for Lifelong Learning and Deputy Director-General for Education, Ministry of Education, Youth and Sport. He graduated his Master's Degree in Comparative and International Education and his Doctor of Philosophy in Education and Human Sciences from Hiroshima University in March 2002 and March 2005 respectively. Dr. Dy worked as education officer and education specialist for UNESCO (2005-2010) and ADB (2010-2012) prior to his return to the Royal University of Phnom Penh as Director of the Master of Education Program and Founding Dean of the Faculty of Education in 2013-2015. He remains as adjunct professor of the Faculty of Education, RUPP since 2006. He published several papers in international reviewed journals, academic bulletins and chapters of edited books in the areas of education policy and development in Cambodia. During 2012-2014, he provided consultancy services to a number of organizations such as OECD, GIZ, SDC, ADB, UNESCO, WB, ACLEDA Institute of Business and various education NGOs in Cambodia and Myanmar.

B
I
O
G
R
A
P
H
Y