

MS. DURIYA AMATAVIVAT

Advisor to the office of the Permanent Secretary
Ministry of Education, Thailand

Ms. Duriya Amatavivat was Deputy Permanent-Secretary at the Ministry of Education of Thailand until the end of September 2020. Immediately prior to this, she assumed several key positions, including Inspector General for Education, Director-General of Regional Education Offices, Acting Deputy Permanent Delegate in the Permanent Delegation of the Kingdom of Thailand to UNESCO at Paris in the Republic of France. In over 20 years of service with the Ministry, she has accumulated extensive experience and has made a significant contribution in the areas of overall development of education and in particular, international collaboration in education. She has had a long experience in international affairs. During serving at the Ministry of Education, she was assigned to attend many international meetings and conferences where she has had close networks and contacts with international partners. Furthermore, under her own capacity, she is also invited to join some technical working groups with international partners. These wide-ranging roles and responsibilities require great leadership and team management skills.

She graduated from the Faculty of Liberal Arts, Thammasat University, where she earned a Bachelor of Arts. She also graduated with a Master's Degree in Public Administration from Old Dominion University in the United States of America.

B
I
O
G
R
A
P
H
Y